Prepared in accordance with Section 51 of the Promotion of Access to Information Act, No. 2 of 2000

(Private Body)

Last Updated: 3 March 2017

1. INTRODUCTION

On 9 March 2001, the Promotion of Access to Information Act, No. 2 of 2000 (“the Act”) became operative, giving effect to the section 32(2) Constitutional right of access to information.

This document serves as AJSBF’s information manual and provides reference to the records held by AJSBF and the process to request access to such records.

Those who seek a record of a private body must meet the following requirements before a private body may release records to them:

- The record must be required for the exercise or protection of any of the individual’s legal rights;
- All the procedural requirements in requesting the information must be complied with;
- Access may be refused in terms of any grounds referred to in the Act.

The manual may be amended from time to time and as soon as any amendments have been finalised the latest version of the manual will be made public.

Who may request access to information:

A person may request information in terms of the Act only if the information is required for the protection of a right. Therefore, the requestor must provide the designated person with sufficient particulars to ensure that the designated person is able to access the right which the requestor is seeking to protect.

It is important to note that the successful completion and submission of an access request form does not automatically allow the requester access to the requested record. An application for access to a record is subject to certain limitations if the requested record falls within a certain category as specified within Part 3 Chapter 4 of the Act.

If it is reasonably suspected that the requester has obtained access to records through the submission of materially false or misleading information, legal proceedings may be instituted against such requester.

- The requester must use the prescribed form to make the request for access to a record. This must be made to the appointed designated person. This request must be made to the address, fax number or electronic mail address of the body concerned.
- Request for access to records of private body – Form C has been appended to the manual.
- The requester must provide sufficient detail on the request form to enable the head of the private body to identify the record and the requester. The requester should also indicate which form of access is required. The requester should also indicate if any other manner is to be used to inform the requester and state the necessary particulars to be so informed.
- The requester must identify the right that is sought to be exercised or to be protected and provide an explanation of why the requested record is required for the exercise or protection of that right.
- Take care to adequately describe the right which you are seeking to protect or enforce by means of the records requested. Please note that the courts have indicated that access to the records must be “necessary” for the exercise or protection of the right so stated.
- If a request is made on behalf of another person, the requester must then submit proof of the capacity in which the requester is making the request to the satisfaction of the designated person of the private body.

- A public body may make a request for access to a record of a private body for the exercise or protection of any rights other than its rights, only if it is acting in the public interest.
